Confessions may be heard before the Liturgy or by appointment. On Liturgy days the last confession should begin before 10.45 a.m. to allow the priest to begin the Liturgy on time – please phone if you can to help him plan.

On days marked (generally great feasts, commemorations or meetings) there is a communal meal after the Liturgy. All are invited to contribute (fasting food during fasts), and all are welcome who wish to stay. Please only bring food which is ready to serve and does not need preparation in the kitchen. After other services only tea, coffee and biscuits are served, or a cake may be shared.

Dunblane: Priest in charge.
